Each item in our inventory has been checked, very strictly graded, and bags to protect it. SW Compression Wrapped. Still in the original factory contraction wrapper, with the condition visible through the contraction marked. For example, SW (NM) means compression wrapped in a state of almost mint. NM Near the Mint. As new only with the slightest wear, many times are indistinguishable from the mint item. Close to perfect, very collectible. Table games in this state can be played, but show little to no wear. EX Excellent. Slightly used, but almost as new. Can show very small folds of the spine or a slight wear of the corner. Absolutely no tears and traces, collectible conditions. VG is very good. Use. Can have medium folds, angular dings, minor tears or sc losing marks, small stains, etc. full and very useful. The fair is very well used, but full and useful. May have flaws such as tears, pen marks or backlights, large folds, stains, signs, free card, etc. Poor is extremely well used and has serious flaws that may be too numerous to mention. The item is complete, if not eternal. The box items are listed as code/code, where the first code represents the field and the second code describes the content. When only one condition is listed, the field and content are in the same state. The plus sign indicates that the item is close to the next highest state. For example, EXS is an element between a great and close mint. The negative sign indicates the opposite. Separately, there are serious defects and/or missing components. Counters of board games are broken, if not taken into account. Due to the nature of the free counters, if the game is not played, it can be returned for a refund of the purchase price. In most cases, box games and box sets do not come with cubes. Cardboard support for miniature packs not graded. If they wear too much, they will be labeled as worn cards. Flat trays for SPI games are not graded, and have common problems. If they are worn out, they will be labeled worn out. Mark's remnant - the remnant of the mark is usually a small black line or dot written with felt pen or Sharpie on the top, bottom, side page edges, and sometimes on the SSS symbol on the back of the book. Publishers use these signs when books come back to them. White Dwarf Index 301-325 (USA) Welcome to Warhammer 40k - Lexicanum! Sign in and join the community. From Warhammer 40k - Lexicanum Page Discussion View Source Story We present detailed evolutionary calculations for carbon-oxygen and helium nuclei of white dwarf models with masses from MH 0.1 to 1.2 M<sub>solar</sub> and for metallicity No 0.001 and 0. cover a wide range of hydrogen envelopes as well. We fully considered the final temperature effects using the detailed evolutionary code of the white dwarf, which examines the updated radiotic opacity and equations of the state of the plasma of hydrogen and helium. Helium. transporting energy through convection is seen within the formalism of the theory of full-spectrum turbulence, as given by the self-creating model of Canuto, Goldman and Mazzitelli. Convective mixing, crystallization, hydrogen burning and neutrino loss are also taken into account. The set of models presented here is very detailed and should be valuable, especially for the interpretation of observations of low-mass white dwarfs recently discovered in numerous binary configurations, as well as for the general problem of determining the theoretical function of luminosity for white dwarfs. In this context, we compare our cooling sequences with the observed white dwarf luminosity function recently improved by Leggett, Ruiz, and Bergeron, and get the age for the Galactic Disk No. 8 Gyr. Finally, we use the results of this work to produce stellar masses of a sample of small-oil white dwarfs.
